

Jewel Hurtado
Kingsburg City Council member

Roger Perry, the event's musical entertainment

Simone Cranston-Rhodes CVPPAC
President

Lourin Hubbard,
Congressional District 22 Candidate

Andy Levine Candidate for Fresno
Unified Area 5 Trustee

The CVPPAC Fall Fundraiser Celebrating Progressive Politics in Fresno

By Mike Rhodes

Members of the Central Valley Progressive PAC believes in social and economic justice. We believe in democracy and that electing progressive candidates to local office will have a profound impact in Fresno and the San Joaquin Valley.

Veva Islas, Fresno Unified Trustee
Area 4

Lori Pesante Dolores Huerta
Foundation Representative
Spoke about redistricting

We need to have a strategic plan and work to unify the many progressive grassroots groups, organized labor, the poor and working people to win political power and elections at the city, school board and county level.

If you believe a better future is possible, join us by becoming a member of the CVPPAC. Here is how you can do that online:
<https://www.cvppac.org/join-us/>

Jaguar Bennett Advocate for Common Sense in the Tower
District

To see a video of the Central Valley Progressive PAC Fall Fundraiser that took place on October 16, 2021, follow the link below. The photos on this page are of the speakers at that event.
<https://youtu.be/yQcZwSeqTqA>

You are invited to the next Central Valley Progressive PAC meeting, which will be held via Zoom on Saturday, November 13, at 3:30 p.m.

Elsa Mejia, Candidate for Madera City
Council; Endorsed by the CVPPAC

