

The Election Is Over—We Won!

The malignant narcissist in the White House will soon be gone, immigrant children will be released from Trump's cages and we will reverse as many of his horrific policies as possible. Simultaneously, the work will begin to stop COVID-19, reverse climate change, rebuild the economy and make sure people are paid a living wage.

Locally, CVPPAC-endorsed candidates won some important races. Congratulations to

- Santos Garcia, Mayor of the City of Madera
- Anita Denise Evans, Madera City Council District 4
- Zimri Padilla, Madera BOE Trustee Area 4
- Nasreen Johnson, SCCC Trustee Area 2
- Shawn Brooks, Central Unified Trustee Area 4
- Jose Sigala, Tulare City Council District 1

In the last several years, the CVPPAC has helped push the Fresno City Council from red to blue. We now have a 6-1 majority at City Hall. In 2021, we will develop a strategic plan to get more progressives elected locally. If you want to be a part of getting more progressive candidates elected, join the CVPPAC. Together, we will build a better Fresno. Use the membership form on the right or join us online at www.cvppac.org/join-us/.

The next meeting of the Central Valley Progressive PAC will be Saturday, January 9, at 3:30 p.m. At that meeting, we will elect a new executive board that will serve for the next two years.

There will be no CVPPAC meeting in December.

Do you want. . .

A BETTER FRESNO...

Join us as we continue our strategic plan to elect progressives to local office, build a labor/community alliance, demand clean air, clean water, police accountability and for all workers to earn a living wage. With your support we will win political power.
